

TAAD presents a seminar for new chief appraisers

Are you anxiously preparing to experience a Methods and Assistance Program (MAP) Review?

If you are a new OR new-to-the-process chief appraiser, this half-day session will be just what you need! Representatives of the Comptroller's Property Tax Assistance Division will be on hand to outline the process, answer your questions and concerns, explain new steps in the review and help you prepare for your appraisal district's review.
